

Authentic Leading Women

Haymarket Hotel, 1 Suffolk Place, SW1Y 4HX

Wednesday 12th February 2020 and Tuesday 25th February 2020

A 2-day programme aimed at supporting senior women into the next phase of their career

Designed to encourage women to identify and engage with your own unique leadership style, not change or modifying behaviour to emulate men. The programme aims to embrace and enhance the skills you naturally have, as a woman, as opposed to trying to change or fix them.

Supporting senior women to explore values, emotional intelligence and authenticity in order to be more successful living your values rather than giving them up.

Putting your passion, gravitas, assertiveness and impact forward in a consciously competent way that has your authentic signature whilst creating the level of impact you deserve.

An experiential programme which, whilst challenging and stretching, the learning environment is fun, supportive and fast moving.

2-day
programme
£1,750 + VAT

The price includes an online Emotional Intelligence Assessment/Report. Breakfast, refreshments, lunch and afternoon tea at The Haymarket Hotel is also ²included.

Facilitators

Ruth Smith

Deena
Gornick

Ruth Smith is a highly experienced facilitator and Executive Coach. She is passionate about making a sustainable and enduring difference for her clients and has challenged yet supported her clients to be inspirational for themselves and others. Clients describe Ruth's events and her style of facilitating as 'energising, engaging and insightful'. Ruth has worked in corporate organisations, as well as running her own business, and offers clients strategic business knowledge, leadership knowledge and experience and demonstrable commercial acumen building rapport and connecting with Senior Executives at their level. Her qualifications include a Psychology degree, an MBA from a leading UK business school and a PhD in Relationship Marketing.

Deena Gornick is an executive coach with over twenty five years of experience across the corporate sector. A professional theatre director and performer for fifteen years, Deena moved in to coaching because of a fascination with confidence, it alluded her; she strongly believes that confidence is a behaviour, a skill, and not a feeling. It is, she believes not the same thing as self-esteem. Deena has led Assertiveness Training workshops throughout the United Kingdom. She is committed to laughter as a tool for creating the kind of environments suitable to growing skills of confidence and this is born out of client feedback through the years.

Feedback from Previous Programmes

I wanted to take some time for a step back and to think strategically about my leadership. I was fascinated by the experiences of the others on the programme and the women gave a lot of themselves, which was a joy! I found taking the time to be self-reflective, understand more and be curious was so helpful and reinvigorating. The breadth of topics and the format of the 2-days played out perfectly. Beth Spencer, European Head of Reputational Risk, HSBC

The programme has been the most significant positive impact on my personal development in many many years. It far exceeded anything I was expecting to achieve. There were many light bulb moments for me during Day 1 and then the interactivity and practical nature of Day 2 was revolutionary. Abi Baker, Technology and Infrastructure Manager, Thames Water

I really loved the contrast of the two days. The blend of theoretical and practical elements made it a worthwhile and enjoyable programme. I felt I learnt a lot and I also now have with me a range of tools to help in my personal development journey. Sharing experiences, listening to and connecting with the other women was also really enjoyable. I loved it! Nazareen Johnson, Head of OD and Talent, Pets at Home

This programme was unlike any other training I have ever done. It completely blew my expectations away. I really liked the size of the group and the venue was beautiful, it was intimate which built a great trust and bond between us. The 2-days are well structured and exceptionally well delivered. The facilitators were considerate, credible and captivating. I feel I have not only learnt so many new things but the penny dropped for me and certain things have now started to make sense. Camilla Dica, Resourcing Manager, Thales Group

No other development programme has impacted me in the same way. I loved it and felt such a high degree of involvement in the outputs. Many of the aspects were a real eye opener and I have enjoyed being able to reflect and think through some of the implications for me as a leader. Ruth and Deena were incredible and they led the personal discovery perfectly. Laura Reilly, Marketing Director, Life Sciences, Croda

Authentic Leading Women is the most thought provoking and empowering leadership course I've taken. It was so wonderful to meet like-minded women and create discussions and conversations that were so thought provoking. It is very rare that I don't think about work constantly during a day like this but I really enjoyed taking the time to learn so much about myself. The programme really connected with me and I am excited about the next part of the journey. I have an inner ease and confidence, which has centred me as a person and as a leader. Laura Barlow, Sales Director, Pegasus Life

I feel extremely lucky to have come across this programme. It surpassed all of my expectations. I particularly enjoyed the variety of the 2 days and the experiences of the many different industries represented. I loved the interactive and practical elements and I now look at things differently and think differently. The programme is transformative. Sharon Crofts, Director of Reinsurance and Credit Control, Markel International

Add-On 1:1 Coaching - As part of Authentic Leading Women, some delegates appreciate the opportunity to have 1:1 sessions with one of the facilitators from the programme. The purpose of the sessions can include looking at your personal action plan, thinking through what is next for you, more in depth feedback on your EQ-i report, identification of priorities for your personal development or a discussion around any confidential aspects emerging from the programme. If you would like to take advantage of 2 x 2 hour 1:1 telephone/skype coaching sessions then you can arrange these either before, during or after Authentic Leading Women. The fee for the 2 sessions is £1500 +VAT and is only available as an add-on to an Authentic Leading Women delegate (not as a stand-alone programme).

Group Coaching - If you would like to take advantage of working with some of the delegates from your cohort, in a group coaching environment, we can offer 4 x 1 hour telephone coaching sessions for up to 6 people. This will give the opportunity to build an on-going support network with your fellow authentic leading women, explore some of the areas in more depth and to continue your development in a trusting and safe environment. Please contact us for further information.
